

Grants Approved 2005

OrganizationName	AmtGranted	Purpose
After Gateway	$10,000.00	for general operating support
American Judicature Society	$50,000.00	to assist in the creation of the AJS Institute of Forensic Science and Public Policy in Greensboro
American Red Cross	$100,000.00	for Hurricane Katrina Relief
Boys & Girls Clubs of High Point	$20,000.00	for the Health and Life Skills Program
Catawba College Center for the Environment	$15,000.00	for the second season of the Simple Living television series to directly fund one of two segments focusing attention on Greensboro
Center for Visual Artists Greensboro	$5,000.00	for renovation of the gallery space in the Greensboro Cultural Center
Communitites in Schools of Greater Greensboro	$15,000.00	for the 2005 Great Leaps Reading Projects which help children read better and more rapidly
Community Clinic of High Point, Inc.	$25,000.00	to help fund the Nurse Practitioner position
Cove Creek Gardens	$15,000.00	for purchase of additional land for garden expansion and wetlands protection
Eastern Music Festival	$15,000.00	to support the 2006 Piedmont Jazz & Blues Festival
Family Service of the Piedmont	$20,000.00	for the Consumer Credit Counseling Service to support the counseling component of the North Carolina Home Protection Pilot Program in Guilford County
Friends... You Can Count On	$10,000.00	to help fund a seed grant for research on finding an earlier detection for breast cancer
Green Hill Center for North Carolina Art	$10,000.00	for a new computer system including a network server, twelve workstations, updated software and a service package for installation, staff training and technical support
Greensboro Children's Museum	$10,000.00	for the "Making Manners Matter" program for pre-school children
Greensboro Historical Museum	$50,000.00	for the capital campaign to renovate and upgrade the O.Henry Village
Greensboro Symphony	$5,000.00	to underwrite the 2nd annual Community Gospel Concert to be presented on Friday January 27, 2006
Greensboro Urban Ministry	$20,000.00	to provide emergency financial assistance to families facing homelessness in the Greensboro area
Guilford County Coalition on Infant Mortality	$15,000.00	for the Adopt-A-Mom program to provide prenatal care for approximatley thirty-five Guilford County women
Guilford County Sheriff's Department	$5,000.00	for the Prodigal Son Program
Hospice at Greensboro	$50,000.00	to the endowment fund
Hospice of the Piedmont	$20,000.00	for the Hospice Home in High Point, a 14-bed inpatient facility to serve individuals who cannot safely or comfortably remain at home
Jericho House	$4,500.00	to purchase a vehicle for client transportation

Grants Approved 2005

Mary's House	$18,200.00	to help in providing furnishings for the sixteen single family homes for mothers recovering from addiction and their children
Mental Health Association in High Point	$20,000.00	for bridge funding of the Work Force-Greensboro program to enable payment of incurred expenses prior to receiving payments from Vocational Rehabilitation
Nature Conservancy, NC Chapter	$10,000.00	for the Land for Tomorrow project for outreach, communication and education to raise conservation and historic preservation to a state priority level
NC Humanities Council	$15,000.00	for the week-long residential Teachers' Institute Program, The Culture of Religion in North Carolina, for teachers from Guilford County's most highly impacted schools
NC Partnership for Children	$10,000.00	to support the 2006 National Smart Start Conference being held in Greensboro in March
NCSU (Extension Master Gardeners)	$9,000.00	for the Community Gardens' project, Raise the Beds, to build permanent structures and provide irrigation for garden plots leased by Guilford County residents
One Step Further	$5,000.00	for the Youth Enrichment Services program to provide services geared toward youth ages 10-17 years old who are delinquent, undisciplined, at-risk or newly released from "training school"
Oxfam America	$50,000.00	for the Tsunami Response and Global Emergencies Fund to support relief efforts following the devastating tsunami in Asia
Parents as Teachers	$15,000.00	for general operating support
Prevent Blindness North Carolina	$2,500.00	to provide cost effective vision screenings to at-risk children in Guilford County
Second Harvest Food Bank of Northwest North Carolina	$15,000.00	for general operating support
Temple Emanuel	$4,500.00	for the Archive Preservation Project to fund the purchase of equipment necessary for the stabilization, organization and preservation of archival material
UNC Lineberger Comprehensive Cancer Center	$10,000.00	for the Seed Grants for New Ideas in Cancer Research program
United Arts Council of Greensboro	$26,000.00	to the annual campaign
United Way of Greater Greensboro	$50,000.00	for the 2005 annual campaign
Volunteer Center of Greensboro	$10,000.00	for the new initiative to promote and encourage Guilford County youth to volunteer in their community